

ZyCarb from HOUSTON ENZYMES

ZyCarb is primarily aimed at the breakdown of carbohydrates and starches. It helps reduce gas and bloating from lactose intolerance. ZyCarb also works on certain triglycerides, and lends some support for promoting breakdown of food proteins.*

Dr. Devin Houston, Ph.D. biochemist, develops proprietary blends of plant enzymes that effectively support the digestion of food. We guarantee the quality of our products. Let our knowledgeable Customer Service technicians develop a customized plan for you. Call toll-free at 866-757-8627 or visit us at www.houston-enzymes.com.
