THE HIMALAYAN HAPPY BERRY

Organic Goji 100 is a dark, delicious juice created solely from sun-drenched, ready-to-burst Goji berries. Goji berries are native to the Himalayan region of Asia, flourishing on tall shrubs with vine-like branches.

The Goji is a true treasure in many Asian cultures and festivals are held to celebrate the berry's annual harvest. Genesis Today's Organic Goji 100 supports a positive mood, which may be why the Goji is called the "Happy Berry." It's even rumored that "one too many" berries results in spontaneous laughter!

We harvest our Goji berries by hand and create Organic Goji 100 using a traditional slow cook method to bring out the peak health benefits of the Goji berry. Organic Goji 100 is certified organic and Kosher. It's also gluten-free, vegetarian, wheat-free, dairy-free and non-GMO. Genesis Today sources, formulates and tests this juice to make sure it meets our own high standards – so we can meet yours.*
