Super Concentrated Series

The Super Concentrated Series are the most powerful concentrated performance products available – guaranteed. Unlike other companies that mislead you with the promise of results based solely on animal research or that underdose their ingredients and hide them in proprietary blends, the Super Concentrated Series is powered by premium-quality ingredients in precise and fully disclosed clinically researched doses. No proprietary blends. No fillers. No hype. No exceptions.

The Most Powerful Nitric Oxide Stimulant Ever.[▲] Guaranteed.

NanoStim™ is a powerful super-concentrated nitric oxide stimulant that delivers superior muscle pumps for an incredible training experience. Based on the latest clinical research on nitric oxide metabolism, NanoStim™ is formulated with the scientifically studied compounds L-citrulline, quercetin, yohimbe extract and huperzine-A.[▲]

Why You Should Use NanoStim™

- Unlike many other nitric oxide products, NanoStim™ contains a powerful 3000mg dose of L-citrulline, which is shown in a study on nitric oxide metabolism to be superior to a larger dose of arginine for increasing blood levels of arginine.[▲]
Schwedhelm et al., 2007. Br Journal of Clinical Pharmacology. 65(1):51-59.
- NanoStim™ delivers an extremely potent dose of yohimbe extract, supplying both rauwolscine and yohimbine. These have been shown to block alpha-2 receptors, which can play a significant role in regulating blood flow.[▲]
- Formulated with quercetin, this powerful compound has been clinically shown to increase the key markers of nitric oxide production and reduce a vasoconstricting factor.[▲]
Loke et al., 2008. American Journal of Clinical Nutrition. 88:1018-1025.
- Huperzine-A has the ability to block the enzyme that decreases acetylcholine levels. Increasing acetylcholine levels can improve focus.[▲]
