Patented Delivery Technology

The patented BIO-tract® delivery technology is a sophisticated blend of excipients designed to create a protective barrier between the fragile probiotics and the harsh stomach environment. Once in the small intestines, the protective layer releases the digestive enzymes and LIVE probiotics. Bypassing the harsh stomach environment is essential for the introduction of ACTIVE cultures to the intestines that cannot be achieved by traditional capsules, powders, or even food.

Patented Shelf Life Stability

Digest-ALL® IC probiotic protection starts long before it gets ingested. The patented LiveBac® tableting process was designed to combat the negative effects of heat, air and moisture present during conventional tableting methods. The result is a product that overcomes these obstacles to provide high viability probiotics with an increased shelf life, even without refrigeration.

Suggested Usage: Take 1-2 tablets daily with food or as directed by your qualified health care provider.
