Cortix™ is scientifically formulated to deliver comprehensive and superior quality nutritional support for healthy cortisol levels. Cortix™'s advanced formula includes Ashwagandha extract, Phosphatidylserine, Bacopa monnieri extract, Rhodiola rosea extract, L-Theanine and Gamma-aminobutyric acid (GABA). The Cortix™ formula is designed to promote optimization of cortisol function and homeostasis for effective weight management and stress defense.[†]

Cortisol is a hormone produced by the human adrenal glands and intra-abdominal fat cells in response to stress. Recent scientific evidence suggests high cortisol levels are associated with disruptive food cues in response to stress, overeating and abdominal obesity.[†]

Cortix™ is an advanced and science-based formula delivering comprehensive and superior quality support for healthy cortisol function. Cortix™ was designed to help cortisol homeostasis and promote optimization as an effective weight management and stress defense modulator.
