

MaxxTOR™ is a truly revolutionary and innovative new product from MMSN that contains the key patented ingredient proven to significantly increase muscle protein synthesis, muscle size, strength and power while at the same time decrease body fat.[†]

MaxxTOR™ is driven by Mediator® Phosphatidic Acid, one of the most powerful molecular activators of the mammalian target of rapamycin (mTOR) signaling pathway. The protein enzyme kinase mTOR is the master regulator of the signaling network that controls muscle growth.

The MaxxTOR™ formula has combined Mediator® Phosphatidic Acid with other key synergistic ingredients including L-Leucine, Beta-Hydroxy-Beta-Methylbutyrate (HMB) and Vitamin D3 to deliver the most powerful mTOR Signaling Activator ever developed.[†]

[†]Based on results from an 8 week research study using Mediator® Phosphatidic Acid and resistance training conducted by Dr. Jacob Wilson at The University of Tampa, Tampa FL.
