

Nature's Whole-Food Approach to Joint Health

Wholemega™ Flex combines clinically researched, naturally pure whole fish oil with Rose Hips that target joint health support.* The result is a whole-food joint-health formula with ingredients to nourish moving joints and cartilage.* A clear alternative to fractionated and high-heat purified fish oils, Wholemega Flex delivers pure Wild Alaskan Salmon oil with Omega-3 fatty acids for cartilage support.* For joint support, Wholemega Flex also delivers a clinical dose of Rose Hips to comfort occasional joint stiffness and help you move freely.*

Suggested use: Three softgels daily with food.
