

Nature's *Whole Focus & Alertness Formula

Wholemega Focus combines clinically researched, naturally pure whole fish oil with tonic herbs that target cognitive function, mood and stress support.* The result is a whole-food formula with ingredients to help maintain focus, a positive mood, and address occasional stress.* A clear alternative to fractionated and purified fish oils, Wholemega Focus delivers naturally pure Wild Alaskan Salmon oil with Omegas shown to support healthy brain functions.* Wholemega Focus also delivers targeted herbs, including clinically studied amounts of Lemon Balm and Sage to promote calm and attentiveness.*

Suggested use: Three softgels daily immediately before a large meal. For best results, take one softgel right before lunch and two right before dinner.

Store in a cool, dry place. DO NOT REFRIGERATE.

Our premium softgel capsules are BSE free.
