The Ultimate Flora Advanced Immunity Difference Ultimate Flora Advanced Immunity is specially formulated to provide a unique two-part approach to enhancing immunity.*

- 1 Powerful immunogens and antioxidants in EpiCor® support the lungs and respiratory system, activating key immune cells to provide powerful support especially during spring and winter.*
- 2 S. boulardii, the beneficial probiotic yeast, and ResistAid® LAG work together to help maintain the natural immune-protective barrier of the intestines.*

Immune Health Begins in the Digestive Tract

Every day our bodies are confronted with environmental factors that impact our defenses and overall health. With more than 70% of the body's immune defenses located in the digestive tract, maintaining a balanced intestinal environment is essential for boosting immunity and promoting optimal health.*
