AMINO STACK™ is not your typical BCAA product, it's a high-performance amino acid formula designed to support muscle building, maximum energy output, and muscle recovery. The unique, proprietary bonding process combines BCAAs - leucine, isoleucine, and valine - through enzymatic technology that may be the best way to realize the full potential of BCAAs. Amino Stack also incorporates the first ever true endurance matrix that focuses on stamina and recovery - scientifically shown to potentially support lean muscle-building programs. Train longer, harder, and support lean muscle.*†
