

Delivers Unique Purple Power Protection

No other mushroom formula contains the unique blend of nutritious ingredients found in Cell Forte® Purple Mushroom Defense™. The organic Purple Kculli Corn, a non-GMO heirloom strain of corn, is sustainably grown in the coastal plains of Peru. It actively serves as a nutritional growth medium, nourishing the four wholesome, organically-grown mushrooms, infusing them with its naturally abundant antioxidant power—for added immune support.*

Cell Forte Purple Mushroom Defense contains beneficial anthocyanins which provide antioxidant support.*

Anthocyanins are potent antioxidants that assist the body in defending against harmful free radicals, thus helping the body to maintain overall immune health.*

Experience The Power of Purple

Cell Forte® Purple Mushroom Defense™ supports immune health naturally with four beneficial organic mushrooms.* In addition, Purple Kculli Corn provides antioxidants and is the perfect growth medium for the mushrooms, to build antioxidant strength and immune system function.*

The Exclusive Purple PowerBlend™*:

- Supports natural killer (NK) cell activity*
- Helps defend against harmful free radicals*
- Contains four health-promoting mushrooms, commonly known as Organic Agaricus, Organic Maitake, Organic Trametes (Turkey Tail) and Organic Reishi.
