

Healthy Inflammation Response

Zyflamend helps balance and promote the body's natural, healthy inflammation process for optimal health and wellness.* Zyflamend Vegecaps have been shown in preclinical studies to promote a healthy inflammation response that can benefit the whole body, including the health of the joints, heart, lungs, immune system, breasts, prostate and skin.* Results from human clinical trials show that this patented formula promotes a safe and natural modulation of inflammation.* Whole-food antioxidants, including Ginger, Turmeric, Green Tea and Rosemary, help combat oxidative stress and support healthy aging.* We deliver the full-spectrum benefits of whole herbs in their natural profiles, not isolated compounds.

The image shows the front of a Zyflamend VEGECAPS bottle. The top half is purple with the 'NEWCHAPTER' logo in white. Below this is a yellow banner that says 'Vegetarian Friendly'. The main body of the bottle is green and features a circular image of a man and a woman. Overlaid on this is the product name 'Zyflamend' in large white letters and 'VEGECAPS' in yellow. To the right of the image is a yellow circle with '100% Vegetarian' and a small image of a capsule. Below the product name, it says 'Formulated for Whole-Body Healthy Inflammation Response*' and 'Promotes Normal Cardiovascular and Joint Function*'. At the bottom, a white oval says '60 Vegetarian Capsules' and the words 'DIETARY SUPPLEMENT' are printed in green at the very bottom.
