Chronic stress has been found to be a major contributing factor in overeating. NOW® Relora® is a non-sedating formula that can help to alleviate symptoms associated with stress such as nervous tension, irritability, concentration difficulties and occasional sleeplessness. The relaxing effect of Relora® can thereby help to control appetite and prevent stress-related eating, aiding in weight control. NOW® Relora® is a proprietary blend of plant extracts from Magnolia officinalis and Phellodendron amurense that is not habit-forming.*
