Targeted Multi-Strain Formula for Optimal Balance*

Ultra Strength Advanced Probiotic 10 contains 10 distinct naturally derived probiotic strains. These strains play an active role in aiding the body's natural digestive process. Ultra Strength Advanced Probiotic 10 also contains 20 billion live probiotic cultures per serving. Probiotics not only support microbial balance of healthy intestinal flora, but assist in the body's natural digestive process, and contribute to immune function.* Probiotics help support the absorption of nutrients.

Supporting intestinal health may be a contributing factor to immune health. Digestion is a complex process, transforming the food we eat into energy, while ridding our system of waste and toxins. Since approximately 70% of immune cells are located in the gastrointestinal system, gut health is not only important to digestion but is also involved in the overall performance of the immune system.
