RAPID 12-WEEK MUSCLEBUILDING RESULTS

Peak SX-7™ is the most powerful pre-workout pill on the market today. And Clear Muscle™ SX-7™ is already the most powerful musclebuilding pill. But did you know that when you combine the two, the sheer gains in lean muscle and strength are unparalleled? In a groundbreaking clinical study at the University of Tampa, test subjects using the key compounds in Pro Clinical Muscle Stack SX-7™ gained 18.7 lbs. of pure, lean muscle in just 12 weeks. What's more, they also added almost 212 lbs. to their best bench/deadlift/squat total. The subjects took part in a hardcore training program that challenged them every workout. Even the placebo group followed the same training program and they built 4.6 lbs. of lean muscle – when is the last time your training program did that? The truth is that there isn't a single supplement out there with a clinical study showing this kind of tremendous muscle growth in just 12 weeks. This is unheard of, and you can only get this kind of power in the Pro Clinical Muscle Stack SX-7™.*

What's In the Pro Clinical Muscle Stack SX-7™?

You start by using Peak SX-7™ before your workouts, and on days you don't train, you use it in the morning. Researchers believe Peak SX-7™ works via multiple pathways. It works by triggering mTOR – the gateway to uninhibited muscle growth. It also boosts vasodilation for unbelievable muscle pumps. All told, Peak SX-7™ primes your muscles for more power and size. The second component of the stack is Clear Muscle™ SX-7™. You take it in three separate doses every day. This is unlike any other compound on the market. This isn't creatine, or calcium HMB, or protein – it's far more powerful than any of these supplements.*

Clear Muscle™ SX-7™ triggers a massive increase in anabolic protein synthesis in the muscles, all while inhibiting muscle catabolism (the destruction of muscle tissue). Clear Muscle™ SX-7™ combines this one-two punch in a way that no other supplement can, and the results are undeniable. Beware of imitators! If you don't see the crystal clear liquid capsule, you're getting duped into a fake. You'll only find this kind of musclebuilding power in Clear Muscle™ SX-7™.*
