70% Better Than Regular Whey Protein for Gains in Lean Muscle

In a six-week, double-blind study involving 36 test subjects divided into three groups with at least three years of weight-training experience, subjects combining the core ingredients in Six Star® Whey Protein Plus with a weight-training program gained 70% more lean muscle than subjects using regular whey protein (8.8 vs. 5.1 lbs.) and increased their bench press more than subjects using regular whey protein (34 vs. 14 lbs.). These same subjects even gained 4 times the lean muscle as subjects using a placebo (8.8 vs. 2.0 lbs.). This formula provides 30g of protein from ultra-pure protein. Plus it delivers creatine, leucine, isoleucine, valine and glutamine.▲
