

Daily Prostate Defense™

A healthy prostate is a key component of a man's sexual and urinary health.* The natural and organic concentrates in Daily Prostate Defense™ have been specially formulated to support your prostate through a unique blend of ingredients.*

■ Organic Saw Palmetto:

One of the best known botanicals for optimal support of prostate function, Saw Palmetto has long been used in Native American traditions.* Derived from Saw Palmetto berries, it delivers targeted nutritional support for the prostate and urinary tract system.*

■ Organic Tomato:

The nutrients that give tomatoes their deep red color offer powerful antioxidant potential.* Studies suggest that regular consumption of tomato products may support a healthy prostate.*
