Immune System Support

Beta 1,3 glucans, arabinogalactan, plus reishi and maitake mushrooms contain long-chain polysaccharides. They trick the body into thinking it is being invaded by bacteria or viruses. This triggers a cascade of immune activation. Macrophages, T-cells and natural killer cells are all set in motion. This unique blend provides the most powerful immune system defense available in a natural supplement.*

RECOMMENDATION

For maintenance: Take one capsule between meals two or three times daily. For periods of Immune System stress: Take 6-10 capsules daily.
