4000* Compare Antioxidant Power

1 serving of go greens has greater Antioxidant Power than one serving of each of the following 6 fruits and vegetables combined!

ORAC, short for Oxygen Radical Absorbance Capacity, measures the total Antioxidant Power of foods. Antioxidants disarm oxygen free radicals. These free radicals harm healthy cells, accelerating aging throughout the body. The more harmful free radicals a food can absorb, the higher its Antioxidant Power, and ORAC score.

* The acceptable precision of the ORAC assay is 15% relative standard deviation. ORAC value results reflect antioxidant capacity at time of manufacture. ORAC values of fruit and vegetables sourced from the Journal of Agricultural and Food Chemistry.
