Bones are Living Tissue They Need Silica!

Silica is required for healthy collagen and connective tissue, which form the foundation for bones, tendons, ligaments, teeth, skin, hair and nails. But silica—like many minerals—is difficult to get from diet alone.

Bone-Sil™ provides natural silica, a critical trace mineral that supports bone health and bone density. Silica is necessary for the utilization of calcium to maintain healthy, strong bones.*

Healthy Strong Bones...Naturally Bone-Sil™

Bone-Sil™ Boosts Bone Absorption of Calcium by 50%!*

Bone-Sil™: The Superior Silica!

- A natural plant source of silica— not sourced from rocks or synthesized from chemicals.
- A gentle, proprietary extraction process preserves the silica and beneficial flavonoids while filtering out harsh, unnecessary compounds.
- The addition of trace minerals from the sea and healthy marine lipids enhance silica's absorption for even greater bone support.*
