One bottle of Energize
gives you the same amount of energy as 42 bottles of energy shots!

Developed by a doctor, Energize gives you the energy you need to get you through your busy day. A two-tablet serving of Energize has more caffeine than a serving of most other energy products, but the patented time-released technology releases it slowly—shown in a clinical study to last up to eight hours.^Δ So there's no rush at the start. No jitters. No crash.

Plus, Energize tablets are coated to avoid any of the bitter taste typical of energy shots and other caffeinated products.

Finally, compare your cost per serving to that of other energy products—you'll find Energize gives you six weeks of all-day energy in one bottle!

Just take two Energize tablets in the morning for all-day energy, no jitters, no crash, and no bitter taste! We guarantee it!
