

LiverX™ is specifically formulated to support liver health during times of stress or during detoxification. Each capsule supplies an array of clinically documented nutrients including Ayurvedic extracts and powerful antioxidants to promote daily liver support.

Our key ingredient, BioSorb™ Silymarin, offers five times better silymarin absorption over simple milk thistle extracts. Clinical studies report silymarin levels in the blood increased by 290% in just 1.5 hours, and remained elevated by 342% for 12 hours, offering significant and long lasting protection.

- Supports liver and healthy detoxification*
- BioSorb™ Silymarin gets absorbed five times better than basic milk thistle extracts*
