Prenatal One™ Multivitamin

Complete profile of essential nutrients for the health of mom and baby throughout pregnancy and nursing, with:

Research-based potencies of essential nutrients such as iron, folic acid & Vitamin D to support healthy fetal development* and complete B-complex support balanced energy and enhanced immune function for mom.

Gentle Prenatal Blend of nourishing botanicals, traditionally used during pregnancy, including fresh ginger juice plus probiotics to help soothe digestion.*

DHA 250 Smart Essentials™

Powerful support for optimal cognitive development and age-related brain health concerns – in just one softgel per day!

Delivers targeted nutrients and highly concentrated omega-3 essential fatty acids with no “fishy” aftertaste, featuring:

Brain-Building Nutritional Blend including 250 mg DHA, which supports normal development of the brain, eyes and nerves, with folic acid, choline, EPA and vitamin E to support brain and heart health.*

Optimal Potency – when combined with average daily dietary intake of 50 mg DHA, safely meets expert-recommended 300 mg/day for pregnant and nursing moms.

Exceptional Purity – molecularly distilled to remove any contaminants including heavy metals and other impurities; orange essential oil eliminates “fishy” aftertaste and stimulates digestion.
