Matcha Green Tea

Matcha green tea is a premium green tea in which only the youngest top leaves are used. Their stems and veins are removed and slowly stone ground into an ultra-fine powder. The result is a highly purified green tea meaning it is pure, clean and additive free.

Understanding EGCGs

Matcha Green Tea contains a unique class of compounds known as Epigallocatechin gallate (EGCGs). The polyphenol epigallocatechin gallate (EGCG) is the most abundant catechin commonly found in tea.
