Collagen is an amino acid-rich substance found naturally in the body. It is naturally found in connective tissues, and supplies important amino acids for the body.* Since levels can decrease with age, supplementing with Hydrolyzed Collagen may be important for some individuals. Our formula is standardized for 10% Hyaluronic Acid, a polysaccharide. Hyaluronic Acid is found naturally in the body, and serves as an important component of skin. By scientifically isolating polysaccharides, we ensure that they remain at consistent levels with each dose.
