ECOMER[®]

SHARK LIVER OIL-ALKYLGLYCEROLS

Ecomer is a natural food supplement containing naturally occurring alkylglycerols derived from shark liver oil. Alkylglycerols, also found in mother's milk, bone marrow, and the liver, may help maintain a healthy immune system and aid in detoxification of the body. Ecomer has over 40 published clinical trials showing these superior positive results.

Suggested Use: 1-2 capsules, 2-3 times daily on an empty stomach or as recommended by your Health Care Professional.

Store in a dry place at room temperature.
Keep out of reach of children.
