ORGANIC RAW ROSE HIP POWDER

Referred to as “the fruit of the rose,” rose hip is a small, vitamin-packed bulb that remains on the rose stem once the petals have fallen off. Rose hips have been used for centuries to promote immunity and vitality because of its high content of vitamin C, vitamin A, and antioxidants, along with carotenoids, flavonoids, polyphenols, and catechins that support healthy aging. To increase flavor and nutritional profile, combine with organic acerola powder.†
