Why Total Primate Care?

Forget a multivitamin. If you want to play at a high level, it's the ante to get you in the game. The Total Prime™ "Care" packs include the best of the Omnit® formula combined with vital earth grown nutrients. The day pack helps your joints focus and provides mental clarity with Alpha BRAIN®, maintain normal cellular energy levels with adenosine triphosphate (ATP), and supports healthy bone density with calcium. The night pack supports your body's natural circadian rhythm with melatonin, improves blood flow with nitric oxide, and supports your immune system with Vitamin C. The Total Prime™ "Performance" packs are designed to support your performance during training. They contain creatine monohydrate, beta-alanine, L-glutamine, and L-lysine. Both packs contain the highly potent Krill Oil packed with omega-3s, the green superfoods, spirulina & chlorella, and Shroom TCHT™ Immune to support your immune system.*
