- + trans-resveratrol
- + boosts antioxidant protection*
- + helps neutralize free radicals*
- + supports healthy aging*

Resveratrol is a powerful compound found in red wine. Research suggests that resveratrol may be responsible for many health benefits associated with red wine consumption. Youtheory® Resveratrol captures the essence of red wine grapes... supplying trans-resveratrol from one of nature's most concentrated sources: japanese knotweed. This healthy aging formula includes a proprietary super-fruit blend to help bolster its antioxidant action.*
