Product Label

R-Alpha-Lipoic Acid is neuroprotective, helps control blood sugar, increases ATP levels, chelates heavy metals and functions as a powerful antioxidant against numerous types of free radicals. HUMAX R-Alpha-Lipoic Acid is the stable, potassium buffered form are extremely heat sensitive, easily converting into a useless polymer during processing or when exposed to moderate heat levels.

HUMAX R-Alpha-Lipoic Acid is the same form of alpha-lipoic acid that is created in the body naturally. Research has shown that R-Lipoic Acid may be up to 8 times more active than the standard commercial alpha lipoic acid found in most supplements. Standard commercial products contain the unnatural synthetic form, S-Lipoic acid, which is believed to limit the effectiveness of the superior R isomer.

By supplying only the R-form of alpha lipoic acid, HUMAX R-ALpha-Lipoic Acid gives you the maximum effect with the minimum dose. Our product also includes optically pure and biologically active D-Biotin, which can become depleted from high dosages of alpha lipoic acid.
