

Super Placenta Beauty Queen [Queen #1]

Provides essential compounds that nourish skin and hair, as well as other general nutrients for women.

Super Placenta [Beauty Queen #1] provides various IGFs and amino acids (glutamine, histidine, valine, threonine, glycine, L-arginine, leucine, tryptophan and lysin) that promote skin health and hair growth. In addition to the sheep placenta, pure red deer antler velvet is well known for its enhancing effects on circulations. Super Placenta [Beauty Queen #1] also contains Grape Seed Extract, marine protein and other ingredients that focus on improving overall blood circulation.
