COLLAGEN BUILDER™

is a powerful, vegan-friendly alternative providing nutrients for collagen production and skin hydration.[§]

As we age, our skin is usually first to show it. Moisture escapes the top layer as lipid volume diminishes. Skin begins to show signs of aging in different ways as collagen production declines.

This special vegan formula combines ingredients to support collagen production as well as help maintain moisture for smoother, softer skin. The participants in the study on Ceramosides™ began seeing results in about two weeks. The Ceramosides™ are combined with plant based pro-collagen nutrients for more comprehensive skin support.[§]
