The air we breathe is full of possible irritants, pollution, and even seasonal triggers that can make breathing difficult. Respir-Essence is an all-natural herbal blend of thyme, licorice root, plantain, nettle, cowslip primrose, and elecampane, all of which have been used traditionally to support respiratory health.* This complete respiratory formula is designed to help keep your lungs and respiratory tract functioning normally...relieving occasional symptoms of mucus build up and coughing due to the occasional inhalation of throat irritants.* Give your lungs the support they need to keep you breathing freely and deeply with Respir-Essence. We promise, Respir-Essence won't leave you feeling breathless.
