

Vita-Barley is an organic whole food concentrate made from the juice of young barley grass. It is 100% pure, containing no extra ingredients or fillers. Barley is an extremely nutritious cereal grass, containing a huge spectrum of vitamins, minerals, amino acids and trace minerals in a natural form your body can use.

Vita-Barley is made at a low temperature in order to avoid damage to the nutrients. From the growing process through the manufacturing, Vita-Barley is made with the most advanced techniques available and offers unparalleled quality.

Suggested Uses: Take on an empty stomach or shortly before meals. Mix one level teaspoon of Vita-Barley in a small glass of water or juice. Vita-Barley mixes easier by shaking rather than stirring. Take 2-3 times per day (or more if you need more nutrition).

Contains no artificial colors or preservatives. Contains no gluten, fiber, or fillers. Vita-Barley is a 100% organic, vegetarian product.
