Echinacea and goldenseal are the two most relied-upon botanicals for winter health. Echinacea reigns supreme as North America's primary immune-enhancing botanical. This combination is further enhanced by the addition of European olive leaf plus other key Western and Chinese botanicals such as garlic, isatis, and andrographis.*

WARNING: Do not use if you are pregnant, may become pregnant, or breastfeeding.

Do not use if either tamper-evident seal is broken or missing. Keep out of the reach of children.
