

100% RAW ORGANIC BAOBAB FRUIT POWDER

Native to Africa, the baobab tree, also known as "the tree of life," produces fruit with a highly nutritious pulp. Natives call it the "upside down tree," since its thick branches look similar to roots. Its fruit is an excellent source of energizing vitamin B6, as well as vitamin c and a range of healthy minerals. It's also a great way to add natural dietary fiber to your diet for digestive health.†
