WTCB is an exclusive scientific formulation designed to help the T cells support the immune system. Astragalus may act as a tonic to protect the immune system and help support adrenal gland function. Reishi Mushroom and Dang Shen both have distinctive active constituents that may help improve overall immunity by stimulating the body's own defense mechanism, without adding stress to the system. They may also help the body adapt to stress and increase energy levels. Ginger and Elder Flowers both possess powerful antioxidants.
