Planetary Herbals CANDIDA DIGEST™ is based on the classic Hinga Shtak compound of the 5,000-year-old tradition of Ayurvedic herbalism. It is a combination of warming calmative herbs, designed to support normal digestion. In addition, atractylodes, a highly regarded Chinese digestive tonic, and dandelion root, a valuable digestive bitter from the European and American herbal traditions, are included for broad spectrum support of digestive activity.*

WARNING: Do not use if you are pregnant, may become pregnant, or breastfeeding.

STORE IN A COOL, DRY PLACE.
