No. 21 Vanilla Shake, Less 'N Lean is an exclusive, scientific formulation consisting of natural ingredients and high quality Non-Genetically Modified Soy Protein, as well as other phytochemicals essential for optimum cell function and overall health. Soy is known as a complete protein, containing amino acids, including the branched-chain amino acids that can be used to provide energy directly to muscle tissue. Protein is needed for growth and development. It also helps the body to maintain the proper alkaline to acid balance. This formula contains 50% of the RDV for 22 Vitamins and Minerals and is designed to serve as a meal replacement. Coupled with our Fiber Blend and our Chromium Complex TM, No. 21 may help maintain cholesterol levels that are already within the normal range. It can also aid the circulatory system. L-Carnitine may play a crucial role in energy production.*
